Dear Harold --

It's been many years since we've been in touch, and I hope this letter finds you in reasonably good health, although obviously none of us is getting younger.

I am aware that you have been continuing your very important work, including your numerous FOI suits, for all of which knowledgeable citizens present and future owe in your debt.

Last year Greg Stone told me your papers eventually will go to Hood College, and he mentioned a history professor there, Jerry McMurphy. He informed me that Sylvia's papers had gone there also, at least temporarily.

My own papers consist of one four-door filing cabinet, about a dozen scrapbooks of clippings, and two or three boxes of assorted materials, photos, tapes, etc. Although my contribution was a tiny fraction of yours and Sylvia's, and I am occasionally tempted to wheel it all out to the curb for the trash collector, that would probably be an act of irresponsibility; and so I would like to find a permanent place for them. I don't want to send it to Jean Heywood, from whom I get requests for it every few years, - which I don't answer -

as I have never trusted his bona fides)

I would like to contact McKnight about it, but since I have no reason to believe he knows anything about me, I wonder if you would be willing to talk to him first by way of introduction to see if there is any interest there.

Also, Roger Fenimore has informed me that you know where to reach Selby. I haven't seen his cable-TV documentary on #399, but I would like to talk to him about it. Can you send me his address and phone if you have it?

Many thanks for your help and best wishes to you and Lillian for 1990.

Sincerely,

Ray
